PRICE

The median single family home price in the city this week is $895,000. The median price of all condos in the city this week is $655,000.

PRICE AND VALUE

Price per square foot is a measure of the value placed on properties. Watch for changes in the long term trends of price per square foot as signals of changes in the market.

The median price per square foot for single family homes this week is $508. For condos the median price per square foot is $625.

INVENTORY

Notice that all markets have seasonal fluctuations in inventory (fewer homes are for sale in winter, for example) so a change in inventory alone does not signal strength or weakness.

There are 653 single family homes available this week. And 1207 condominiums on the market in SAN FRANCISCO.

DAYS ON MARKET

The single family homes have been on the market for an average of 118 days. Half of the listings have been on the market less than 17 weeks. The currently available condos have been on the market for an average of 123 days. Half of the condo listings have been on the market less than 18 weeks.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND

Single-family home demand conditions are currently in the Buyer's Market zone (below 30), though not strongly so. The 90-day Market Action Index stands this week at 21.

Condo demand conditions are currently quite strongly in the Buyer's Market zone (below 30). The condo Market Action Index stands at 19.
